Inglwood Community Board Reminder (Karen Moraiti)

A reminder: This Friday is our Keep Ingelwood Beautiful event. Ingelwood has some wonderful natural assets in the form of our reserves and bushy walkways and our Joe Gibbs Scenic Reserve and PG Ngāi Tahu Scenic Reserve are two great examples of natural hidden gems we can be proud of. On Friday 15 September the board is jumping on board with the "Keep New Zealand beautiful" campaign by adopting these two reserves and surrounds to receive a tidy up! We would love the community to come on board with this initiative - please join us for one hour Friday 15 September from 4.00 - 5.00pm. Spread the word and let us know if you are keen to assist: sub@ngdc.govt.nz or join' via our facebook event notification. Numbers required as gloves and rubbish bags will be supplied. Or phone Karen Moraiti 027 251 5287. Hope to see you there!

Voting closes soon. Voting in the election for the vacancy on the Ingelwood Community Board is currently open. Closing day is Wednesday 20 September at 12:00noon. Please don't leave it until the last minute to place your vote. We encourage everyone to have their say. If for some reason you did not receive a voting pack, or have lost it, please phone the electoral office on 0800 922 822.

A creative twist on the usual crop swap giving choice with a not so green thumb a chance to shine. Inglwood First August IAS (Vida Harkness)

Another good crowd of members and visitors to our Ingelwood First IAS which was held at Blue Mountain Sewing on Richmond Street on Wednesday 30 August. Colleen Wilson, the owner spoke passionately about her business, how she is the long haul to stay here in our town. Colleen is a professional sewer, keen to give anything a go whether it is something new that you want made up from a pattern - 75-80% of her work is dressmaking but Colleen will also do mending and any alterations to garments. Oscar's Kiwi Cafe were the caterers for the evening - look out for the new embroidered aprons Colleen is making for them. Colleen also has a most impressive array of sewing threads and needles in fact it is anything to do with sewing Colleen is happy to see if she can get it for you.

The following night Ingelwood First along with the Taranaki Arts Festival co-hosted St Valentine and the Baby Shakes at the Ingelwood Town Hall. A good crowd came along to enjoy the evening and were appreciative of the work done by the committee in setting up the Town Hall.

Ingelwood First Committee members also delivered window dressing packs around town to welcome visitors to our district for the All Blacks v Argentina game which was held on Saturday evening in NZ. There were some really great looking windows. Our visitors would have been impressed even if they were supporting Argentina. Ingelwood First has also paid for the Walk for Kids sign advertising the Walk organised by the Lions Clubs around NZ.

Ingelwood First would also like to take the opportunity to say CONGRATULATIONS to Moa Mail on this being their 200th edition.

RENOVATIONS BEGIN

Pictured is course Superintendent Mark Kennard and greens committee Gordon Aitken beginning the renovation of the 18th Tee at the Ingelwood Golf Club. This is the first of a series of tees to be rebuilt in preparation for the National Senior Interprovincial competition to be held at Ingelwood Golf Club next April.

The tees are the first stage of redevelopment of the course which will include removal of trees, completion of the tenth bridge and the waterfall which is being built by the Clubhouse.

The women of the club are already planning and getting ready for future planning of the grounds which are spread around the course, so as to have everything in flower for the tournament.

savings on river cruises and deals where you fly for free on selected departures or cabins. The reason to plan now especially with airfares is that when the deals come out for flights I can book them immediately as we will have already knuckled down ideas dates and routing. We are so fortunate that Europe has and continues to become more accessible to us Kiwis. Many of us have relatives, sons and daughters living there and the need to explore more than the main cities has become a need rather than just a want. As I have said in previous articles the choice is yours with how you want to see the world. Maximising your time is best with plenty of research before you go with what you want to see or experience, everything out side of that is a bonus in my eyes. Tours – small and bigger groups, cruises and even private guides are the best way to maximise the experience you have and now is the best time to be looking at what will suit your travel style best.
