

Inglewood Identity Lost (Zac Dodanski)

Sady Rose (Topsy) Dodanski left us peacefully on 16th of January at 97 years old. She had a large circle of friends having lived in the area for many years firstly on the Durham Road farm and then at Standish Street for the past 35 years.

Rose was proud a part of the Inglewood community. She was never far from help or a friendly face and the family would like to thank the Inglewood community for this. A special thank you to those who helped Rose whenever she needed it, for example when the wheel came off her scooter members of the community picked her up, helped her home and made sure she was okay.

Rose loved all of the local business's she interacted with, special mentions to Tim at Funk Fish, David and Loraine Reeve from the bookshop, Cathy from the hairdressers, the New World staff,

Inglewood Volunteer Fire Brigade News (Helen Rose)

Earlier this week the Inglewood Volunteer Fire Brigade Truck 641 went out with a crew of five. Four of those crew members were female! QFF Nicky Kuklinski recently qualified as an emergency response driver, took to the wheel while Fire Fighters Baker and Rose sat in the back. New recruit Mel Churchill came along for experience commented "It's great being surrounded by capable females, such a supportive and empowering environment to learn new skills". The call out took the crew to Waitara, where they were redirected to a small fire on the boardwalk which was quickly extinguished. It was a busy afternoon for FBVZ in Taranaki. Officer In Charge, Peter Susans commented "An outstanding crew to have on board. Adapting quickly to a second call out to support our neighbouring community in Waitara."

On another note all of the Taranaki District moved to a restricted fire season as of 8.00am Friday 21 January. This restricted fire season means anyone wanting to light an open-air fire will have to apply for a permit and follow the conditions listed on the permit. For more information around lighting fires in a restricted fire season and you can apply for a permit at checklists.right.nz.
