

Inglewood Represent in Central Ross Brown Rugby Team (Tracy White)

The Inglewood Junior Rugby Club were very fortunate to have 11 players across the Under 13 grades make it into the Central Ross Brown team this year. The team has been training hard since the beginning of June and represented the Central Zone on the weekend of 3rd - 5th of August. They were really up against it with two superb teams finishing ahead on the scoreboard in the first two days. Going down to South 76-7 and North 41-7. The final day saw the team play West for third place. In a very entertaining match Central finished the 2018 Ross Brown tournament in a 12 all draw with West. The Mokuau Motels player of the day awards over the weekend were won by Cameron Chambers, Mitchell Mace and Sunday was shared by Thomas and Ethan McKerchar. Pyra Ward picked up the "Best and Fairest" award for the tournament. Also a huge congratulations to Ethan McKerchar, Thomas McKerchar, Vili Rova, and Jake White for being selected in the Rotorua wider training squad. The Team plays in Cambridge this year and will compete against all other Chiefs franchise provinces in October.

Editors Comments
Last week there was a tragic school bus accident in which the driver Alan Campbell died. Alan had been driving my children to school most mornings over the last couple of months and I was outside at pick up time would always give a smile and wave. My condolences to Allan's wife and family at this difficult time. Something like this is every parents nightmare, thankfully none of the students on the bus were seriously injured. It is always a good idea to know the bus route number that your child travels on and that your contact details are always up to date with their school. When an accident happens a detour is sometimes put in place, that can mean roads drivers aren't familiar with, which can lead to decreased speeds. Please exercise care and patience especially in the dark and bad weather to avoid another tragedy. Philippa Peters - Editor

Shade-by the River

About three months ago we sought tickets for "Les Miserables" at the TSB Theatre in New Plymouth. We carefully chose seats with plenty of legroom and booked our tickets on the Internet, and for the first time we had them on the mobile phone. I was a bit concerned that Mrs Arjay might have problems getting the ticket to display, so I printed out the tickets as a backup. When we arrived at the theatre, Mrs Arjay's ticket came up very easily and it was me that was in trouble. My phone kept saying that it was not connected, so I gave up and produced my paper ticket. We found our seats and were surprised to be sitting in the front row. It appears that row 'A' was not there. Anyway, we were right by the wind section in the orchestra pit. The stage looked higher, and later we realised that there was a revolving stage on top of the normal one. The show started and it soon became obvious that we were going to hear more of the music and less of the words. Despite these handicaps we enjoyed the show and I was glad that I had read the synopsis before I went. This allowed me to understand what was happening when the words were not coming through to us too clearly. Les Miserables is a classic show that I have heard about for years, but this is the first time that we have seen it. The stage show has whetted my appetite and now I have ordered the book version to read in full - and a dvd.

Food for thought, eh?

Ajay

Squash News (Pauline Stachurski)
Thank you to Buckthought Engineering for sponsoring the Inglewood Squash Club's recent Triathlon. For six Thursday nights, sixteen teams of three players, challenged one another on the squash courts, at the dart board and on the car table. Lots of fun socialising and debating many results! A selection of prizes were on the prize table for team winners and lucky spot prize winners. Thanks Budly!
The club has been a very busy place. Club Champs, Junior Coaching, Interclub, Tournaments, etc. having many players and visitors enjoying the facilities and the game of squash. If anyone is keen to visit the squash club, or would like to try the game, contact Pauline 0273 150686.

Norfolk WI August Meeting (Maureen Bunn)
A follow on from last months meeting when Raul Matea a Hungarian bee keeper was our guest speaker. The Norfolk Women's Institute was invited to their honey factory in Stratford. The family have made Taranaki their home and in the last five years they have established a large business in Stratford gathering honey from hives all round the country. This is Manuka honey, all exported to the USA with partners in New York, Manhattan. Some remarks from the members: "So interesting, extraction and production factory." "Manuka honey is high in antibodies, tastes divine too." "A real surprise seeing such a big enterprise here in Stratford. The honey is exported to the USA." "What a wonderful business that from outside just seemed like a big shed. Inside was a huge honey enterprise. Great visit we were all made so welcome." "Very interesting factory, followed the process of honey from labelled and ready for export." "Hives are wide spread and distributed by truck and helicopters." "What an amazing business, we had tea, coffee and biscuits and honey for morning tea." "A worthwhile place to visit." Raul and Aniko kindly donated a jar of honey to raffie. This was won by Dorothy Hart. The Rotokare reserve is the only place you can buy this honey as the hives from their property are serviced by Raul and all honey produced given back as his sponsorship for the community, a very generous offer. Next they headed off too a birthday luncheon at the Ink Pot Cafe. Motto: Even when opportunity knocks, you still must get out of your chair and open the door. Reminder about Daffodil Day, Bowls and Federation Craft Day in Inglewood. The president gave a small gift to each member to commemorate the 87th birthday. They strolled through the Mire 10 plants display on the way out. A great afternoon.

Blooming Daffodil Day (Linda McIntyre)
Chances are you know someone who has or has had cancer, please help raise funds for the local Cancer Society. On Friday the 31 August is Daffodil Day here in Inglewood, there will be a fabulous array of cakes, biscuits and preserves at the street stand outside Fun Ho! Toy Museum, plus lots of daffodils and Cancer Society products for sale.
One of the biggest money earners on the day are the raffles. Linda McIntyre is actively looking for "goodies" to help Nola Koch create some very special raffie prizes. There is a fabulous basket of goodies donated by Ducks Pharmacy and several other Inglewood businesses have generously offered goods as well.
If you can help in any way please contact Linda on 0272826561 or drop off your donation to McDonald Real Estate Ltd, 58 Rata Street, Inglewood.
Cancer affects so many people, in all walks of life, please help all the Cancer Society volunteers here in Inglewood to make Friday the 31 August a successful Daffodil Day in Inglewood. Your support is really appreciated.

Durham WI News (Christine Fitz Patrick)
This months meeting saw a good turn out and a very pleasant evening spent despite our guest speaker being unable to attend. 30 items were contributed for the Daffodil Day grocery raffle and a record number of beautiful knitted garments have been completed this month by members. These articles are going to be distributed to organizations who need these items to boost their stocks. Those in need range from pre babies to pre-schoolers. There was a moment of contemplation when most of the lights went out but a reset at the fuse box seemed to do the trick.

Sewing Machinist
La Nuova operates its commercial laundry operation in Inglewood, Taranaki. We are seeking a sewing machinist. Sewing skills are advantageous, however we are happy to train someone with a good attitude and work ethic.
Every week we supply and clean thousands of garments (overall, shirts, trousers) to workers around Taranaki & Wanganui. In addition to cleaning these items we are contracted to mend garments as they require attention. Replacing broken zips, patching holes in knees, sewing on emblems, etc and a day's work. Hours - 7.30am to 4.00pm - Monday to Friday
Pay will depend on skills and if you are starting from scratch we are happy to review your rate as your skills improve. You will also receive the team perks like free dry-cleaning free fuel, life insurance and towels for home.
We are happy to look at you about the role & we find the right applicants.
If interested please send a cover letter and or through to advertising@lanuova.co.nz or drop your cv off to La Nuova at 114 Rata Street, Inglewood

Inglewood High School Vietnam Trip (Jack Bishop)
Twenty-five motivated students left New Zealand on a 12-day trip of a lifetime. Led by three inspiring teachers, they were excited and privileged with the opportunity to travel and explore a unique part of Asia and to immerse themselves in a new and exciting culture outside the walls of their classroom. The first night was spent in the metropolis that is Hong Kong. The sheer mass of towering buildings and hustle and bustle of busy streets were somewhat overwhelming making them feel distant from the blue sky and green pastures of Inglewood. The time in Hong Kong was short as they departed to Siem Reap in Cambodia, where they were greeted by arguably their favourite guide, Hung or as they preferred 'Hung Over' (he was 100% sure). Cambodia presented them with a tour of stunning temples, the most iconic being the temple of Angkor Wat, the largest religious monument in the world. A highlight was meeting a Buddhist monk, from whom many had the opportunity to receive a blessing. That night they tested their bargaining skills at the local night markets.
On to Vietnam, where the culinary experiences were amazing. Four-course set menus allowed them to experience exquisite local dishes, shifting them outside the comfort zone that was room service. Of course, they could not forget about the insects. The indulgence of sinking your teeth into street-cooked crickets, spiders or frogs was nothing short of delicious. For the few wondering ... yes, frogs do taste like chicken! Hundreds of experiences, six cities, five planes and three countries later, they returned home with a new understanding of their place in the world, the insight into and appreciation of a new culture, the people and the way they live. An experience, that if given the opportunity, you should grab with every bit of strength you have!

Marinoto Hospital News (Denise Loveridge)

The Inglewood Welfare Society truly appreciate the ongoing support from people of Inglewood and surrounding districts for the hospital wing. They continue to be approached by amazing people and organisations giving their time and money to this very worthwhile cause.

The Whangamomona and Inglewood Freemasons recently presented a cheque $2745.00 for the purchase of a hospital bed.

The Welfare recently held a very successful Garage Sale with over $500 being made. Further fundraising is in the pipe line as well. On the 1 September there is an event called 'Brides Through The Ages' where you will be entertained by local artists Kevin Koch and Elaine Schreiber as well as food and wine and viewing bridal gowns from 1908 – through to modern day gowns on display and being modelled. So, well known Inglewood ladies will be displaying their gowns with family members being the models. Come along for a great night out and help push our financial 'barometer' up to the target amount of $250,000.

Mini Putt Comes Closer (Pat Jullian)

Planning is now well under way for the Inglewood Lions Mini Putt Golf Course to be built on the corner of Rata and Elliot Street, next to the town pool.

Each of the holes is based on an Inglewood theme such as the Town Hall, Railway Station, etc with structures to match. One of the outstanding features is sure to be the model oil derrick painstakingly crafted by Egmott Village resident Ron Dodunski. This model is currently on show at the library and is a remarkable demonstration of Ron's skill as an engineer. Lions plan to use voluntary labour to man the complex once it is under way, so that profits can be returned to community groups. Locals who may have a spare time to assist in the running of this community facility are invited to register their name and contact details at Fun Hot Toys, and will be contacted closer to the opening.

What does M. Bovis Mean for the Lifestyle?

With a lifestyle property in North Taranaki having been notified by MPI for Mycoplasma Bovis (M. Bovis), LandGirls have arranged an evening to learn more about how M. Bovis can affect anyone who raises cattle, and a lifestyle block with calves or a couple of beefies. If you manage any cattle on your land, or regularly visit a property where cattle are raised, then join us to learn more about this disease and how to protect our animals and farmlands. We'll also have an update on the National Animal Identification (NAIT) programme. This talk is oriented to those who live on lifestyle blocks and will be held at City West Baptist Church (144 South Rd, Spotswood, New Plymouth), 6.45pm on Thursday 16 August. Entry is free. Kaitake Farm Market Garden Visit Driven by the mantra that organic food should be available to everyone, Tody Dixon and Ryan Gut have established a flourishing market garden on a compact site in Okara. Join the Taranaki LandGirls at 12.45pm on Sunday 26 August as we visit Kaitake Farm, on the corner of Surrey Hill Rd and Kaitake Rd, Okara. $5 pp RSVP by 24 August to shopgirl@gmail.com or 06 752 0889.

Custom Street Rides Takes Out First Place (Kevin Walsh)

The 1951 Chev Pickup was previously owned by an American soldier that was restoring it until he was killed in Afghanistan, it was roughly reassembled in the states and then sold off to a NZ owner that the Popes purchased it from. It required a complete rebuild so the services of CSR was employed to turn it into a modern process.

was massive and took the team just over a year to complete, it qualified to enter the 2018 Grand National Rod and Custom Show in Auckland in July and took out first place for post 1949 Custom Commercial. The competition was of a very high standard so they were extremely happy to take out first place. Colin and Shelley said they didn't know a lot about classic vehicles but the team at Custom Street Rides had created their "dream vehicle" and were ecstatic at taking out first place for NZ.

2018 Big Aroha Taranaki Leadership Conference
(Genyana and Amella)

Ten of our Year 6 and 7 NORTOLK leaders were picked to attend the Big Aroha 2018 Leadership Conference in New Plymouth last Friday. This was a great experience for our growing young leaders. We were inspired by a number of great speakers including Mark Armstrong (The Slacks), Morgan Bamford (Champion Survivor and NZ TV Series), Analise Hugginger (Makeup Artist), Shane Wallace Hoskin (Kengo 5.0), Kendra Cockedge (Black Ferns Rugby) and Liz Alexander (Motivational Speaker). These speakers all had their very own personal experiences to share. Each speaker left us with a key message or quote to take away with us, a message that will help us reach our potential as future leaders. Some of these messages were: Anyone can achieve anything when you chase your dreams and don't give up. Believe in yourself. Potential is an unused strength. Words are thoughts and thoughts are power. Surround yourself with like minded and positive people. Be resilient. Mark Armstrong (The Slacks) and an ex-pupil of Norfolk School taught us that the way you talk to yourself in your mind shapes you. Words are thoughts and thoughts are power. He said, "If you have a thought you can catch it, check it, and change it." Liz Alexander let us with three key tips: Be friendly, find common ground and be kind. She said, "People won't remember what you do or say, but they will remember how you made them feel." Each speaker inspired us to become future leaders, to work hard to reach our potential, and to never give up.

Inglewood First Mid Winter Dinner (Kirstin Knowles)

The Inglewood Club echoed the sound of fun and laughter as members and friends of Inglewood First celebrated the Christmas event for the July IAS.

Mulled wine, port and wonderful Christmas fare set the scene for an evening to be enjoyed with some business' using this as a chance to get together as a team and socialise outside of work while others brought along friends. Everyone enjoyed the wonderful meal prepared by Donna and her team. Patsy T provided the entertainment and the evening was finished with Christmas Cake and Coffee.

Next Inglewood First IAS will be Wednesday 29 August at Robin Drake Interior Design.

Supporting the War on Predators

Over the past number of months we have been trailing a new lure that our Good nature team have supplied us.

This lure has been used in place of our eggs in the regular DOC200 boxes that are installed throughout the project. Our contractors have been blown away with the results, especially noting their lure was attracting a large influx of the rat population - kapow! The A12 and A24 traps are performing well as usual. A huge thanks to those in the community that have supported us by purchasing one of these traps! Your support has been amazing!

Replacing the DOC200 boxes with the more efficient and humane A12 and A24 traps is our aim so if you would like to join the war on predators to save our Kiwi and Kōkako come in and sponsor a trap today!

The next Crop Swap date will be six days before the official start of Spring, but if you were at the July's Crop Swap, it didn't matter that we were in the depths of Winter. There was so much surplus produce, cuttings, flowers, tubers, etc, and lots of old, the chooks are producing again! The tables were heaving with the abundance. If it's your first time to Crop Swap bring along any homegrown surplus, eggs, baking, honey, fruit, veges or anything homemade to swap, these are just a few ideas of what to bring. Come along at 10.00am to set-up have a cuppa and look at what surplus other Crop Swappers have brought along.

The next Crop Swap will be Saturday 25 August, set up: 10.00am, Swap start: 10.30am, finish around 11.30am. Koha appreciated towards Waikato/ Hui lands and cups is included. If you don't have anything to swap at the moment please do still come along and see what this is all about. Contact Jayne on jaynebright44@yahoo.com or 06 756 6192.

Right: Sue Harrison the new Principal at St. Patrick's School with students Keely Bell, Zoe Law, Frankie Lawn and Olive Smith with their Riding for the Disabled gingerbread horse biscuits

Gingerbread horse is a fund raising campaign for the New Plymouth Riding for the Disabled. Volunteers and the wider community bake, decorate and sell gingerbread horse biscuits in support. All proceeds from this campaign enable local groups to continue providing life changing opportunities to over 3000 riders each year
